Affected version:	0.9.5.1

Description

I cannot access the download page through the www.aoz.studio website since the last update of this page.

- download the beta : the link brings me to the download-aoz page
- I tried to "sign up" again for the beta version with two email addresses, but never received a link nor re-gain access

Hopefully I have the link to the Google Drive download repo somewhere in my history... But you should check it for newcomers !
